

OatFrontiers Stakeholders Workshop (online)

24th June 2026, 9:30 to 16:10 (Dublin time)

Scan QR code to register for the online workshop

Time	Session	Speaker
11:00–11:10	Teagasc Crops Research facility overview	Ewen Mullins - Teagasc
11:10–11:25	OatFrontiers project overview	Juho Hautsalo – LUKE, Finland
11:25–11:40	CORE set: findings and pre-breeding perspectives	Kai Ilves – NMBU, Norway
11:40–11:55	Breeding for low mycotoxin and the development of a Decision Support System	Natarajan Subramani and Alan Inglis , UCD, Ireland
12:00–12:30	Open Q&A Topics: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited genetic diversity in the Northern Periphery & Arctic (NPA) region Opportunities for new genomic techniques in oat breeding
12:30–13:30	Lunch Break
13:30–13:45	Mycotoxin and disease assessment work done in OatFrontiers	Fiona Doohan - UCD, Ireland
13:45–14:05	Yield trial, cultivar recommendation, summarization- for Ireland and NPA	Hrannar Smári Hilmarsson – Agricultural University of Iceland
14:05–14:20	Variability in oat quality – lessons learned from OatFrontiers	Sofia Marmon -Lund University, Sweden
14:20–14:35	Oat product development	TBD- Lantmännen, Sweden
14:35–14:50	Short Break
14:50–15:05	Use of oats in animal feed	Mark McGee, Teagasc
15:05–15:20	The role of oats in the Finnish feed market	Elina Røyttä -Rouhiainen-Hankkija Ltd, Finland
15:25–16:00	Panel Discussion Discussion topics: Tentative <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Major challenges for oat production Potential for food vs feed markets (organic, gluten-free, health products) Future research priorities and future collaboration in Ireland and the Northern Periphery
16:00–16:10	Closing Remarks & Take-Home Messages	